

Consumer/Family Forum on Changes in the SLS and CES Services

Conducted by Colorado Division for Developmental Disabilities

If you or a loved one receives supports through the Supported Living Services or Children's Extensive Services programs, you are aware of significant changes to these services which began July 1, 2009. Information concerning these changes continues to be developed and has been partial to date. Therefore, we are very pleased the State of Colorado, Division for Developmental Disabilities leaders are making themselves available to bring you the latest information.

The Arc in Jefferson County along with DDRC encourage you to share your questions, comments and concerns with policy-makers from the Colorado Department of Human Services, Division for Developmental Disabilities. Dr. Jacksi and other State staff will be available to answer questions and hear feedback from individuals in services, parents, guardians and other interested people.

When:
